

A Wave of Terror and Violence

A new wave of terror and violence is sweeping our country. This time it is not in one area of the land, but everywhere. Citizens and soldiers, Arabs and Orthodox Jews - are all being targeted. Riots are rising in different Arab cities and villages. Soldiers and police are seen everywhere.

Two weeks ago I had dinner with American friends who asked, quite surprised, where are all the soldiers. They were so used to travel the country and see them everywhere. Well, they are back on the scene, and everyone seems to be a bit on edge.

Someone is trying to set the region on fire. And once again, Israel needs to fight in order to provide security to her citizens. And we need your prayers, "Ruths", we need your faithfulness and active love. Pray for our soldiers and special forces, who risk their lives and work long shifts in an attempt to restore some peace to the streets across the land. And don't forget the casualties on both sides. Whenever news break during the day (which happens every few hours this week), I find myself praying that fear will be turned into a prayer, that both sides will lift their eyes up to the creator of Heaven and Earth.

The rules on the global playboard are changing so rapidly. Who is for whom, and who against whom? Who knows. With Russia placing her Iron Foot in Syria, Iran being backed up by the west and Isis acting as they wish, who knows what will bring tomorrow?

Are you ready?

One thing is clear: Israel will be more and more isolated and condemned. Maybe this is the time for each to start asking: where will I stand when all will turn against Israel? Will you stand firm besides us even if it may cost your very life?

Eleven Christians were beheaded last month in Aleppo, Syria, as punishment for their refusal to deny their Lord. Will you be able to do the same, if you were faced with the same situation? Given the choice to suffer terribly or cause a major damage to Israel, what would you choose? I am asking myself these questions recently. What used to be martyr stories coming from afar, somehow feels like something we all may have to deal with, God help us.

I know I am mixing here supporting Israel with standing for Yeshua, but I believe the two will soon be proven to be inseparable.

The end of the Fallow Year (Shemita), the Blood Moons and the Feast of Tabernacles drew multitudes of Evangelical Christians from all over the world to Israel. Way over the usual quota for this season. We had many opportunities during this month to share about God's plan in these days for Israel and for her lovers around the world, at times with people from nations Israelis cannot even visit (such as Malaysia). We thank God for bringing our way any group or individuals who sincerely desire to take their stand as a Ruth alongside Naomi, especially as things are heating up.

Who is Knocking on Your Door?

I just finished writing a booklet, in English, called "Who is knocking on your door?"

The booklet explains how you can manage your negative emotions and compulsive thoughts, or else they will manage you. This is an extremely practical guide into healing of deep wounds, and a fruit of our labor through the years with broken hearts. We applied it ourselves, we teach it wherever and whenever we can, and it works. You are welcome to try it for yourself. To order your own copy, contact Adi at 1-706-591-5887

Getting ready to take off

Tomorrow night I will start my next speaking tour in the US. You are welcome to attend any of the meetings. See details and contact information on the preface email, on my facebook page or call my assistant, Adi at the number above.

And please pray for me, if the Lord puts me on your heart. I am fighting a lung infection, not the best start for a long journey with many flights and much stress.
